Mayor's Communications

No report as she is on her way back from a mayor's meeting.

Council Communications and Council Committee Reports

Mrs. Conroy reported that the Community Development Committee is still working on the website. Mr. McDaniel said there have been talks with Luke Wagner and Mr. Mitchell, Mr. Wagner sent mockups to him and Mr. McDaniel forwarded to the committee members. Mrs. Conroy can call another meeting to go over what was sent and discuss their work and pricing.

Mrs. Gensimore said the Laws and Ordinances Committee meeting met last Wednesday and discussed employee issues. One of the things was a motion to recommend to council about the Street Commissioner position however, that position is not open until the end of June. The current Street Commissioner was appointed January 4, 2022 for six months. At this time, she wanted to pool the committee and motion we delay this recommendation until further review. We have until the end of June.

Mrs. Gensimore made a motion to delay this recommendation to Council until further review and talk to legal and go on from there, second by Mrs. Godwin.

Roll Call: (Committee only) Godwin, Kent, and Marissa voted yes. Motion passes.

She also said they discussed a pay raise for the Street Superintendent position and at this time made the motion to have the Laws and Ordinances/HR Committee recommend to council, a $1.00 per hour increase in pay retro to May 1, 2022 bringing his rate up to $26.95 with the next possible increase being January, 2023, second by Mr. McDaniel.

Typically, the Finance Committee looks at raises every year and traditionally raises are done in January.

Roll Call: McDaniel, Godwin, Conroy, Goch, Rash and Gensimore voted yes. Motion passes.

Mrs. Gensimore said they also reviewed/updated a new park agreement which she passed out to council.

Mrs. Gensimore motioned, asking Council to accept this updated form, Mr. McDaniel seconded the motion.

Mr. McDaniel explained this new form applies to the regular rentals and clarifies the responsibility of baseball/softball leagues relative to making park improvements and keeping clean.

Roll Call: Godwin, Conroy, Goch, Rash, Gensimore and McDaniel voted yes. Motion passes.

Mrs. Gensimore said she reached out to Canal Fulton to see what the deadline was for the next Community News. She has not received anything back as they are still meeting with a printer. She said they are a month off their old schedule and to get articles ready now. We need to be prepared and have things ready. This issue will cover events and activities from June through the end of September.

Mr. Rash needs help with the donation program for turkeys in November. This may be a good article for the newsletter.
